

29 JUNE 2016

The Last of the Fringe 2016 Round Ups

BY ERNEST KEARNEY

Font size: + - |  Subscribe to this entry |  Bookmark

THE TOXIC AVENGER MUSICAL

Janet Miller knows all the ingredients that go into making a toe-tapping crowd pleaser. She and her Good People Theatre Company showed that with Marry Me A Little at Fringe 2015, and she demonstrates that again with The Toxic Avenger Musical. With Miller as director/choreographer and Corey Hirsch as musical director the show is slick, fun and remarkably successful.

Miller knows how to cast a show too with Jared Reed as Melvin (soon to be the Toxic Avenger), Kim Dalton a powerhouse as the buxom and blind Sarah, Shirley Anne Hatton as a cast of thousand (okay just three) and Danny Fetter and Wesley Tunison (the show's personality kids). All in all, just about as much fun as one can have sitting down and totally dressed.

The call: GOLD

Learn More at www.goodpeopletheaterco.org/

